

New Year Message from AIGA Board President

Dear Members,

I am honored to share my first message of 2026 as AIGA Board President. It is a privilege to take on this leadership role, and I look forward to working closely with all of you and other industry stakeholders to drive safety excellence across our sector.

Over the past years, AIGA members have made remarkable progress in improving safety in product transportation and occupational areas. We have achieved significant reductions in high-severity Product Vehicle Accidents (PVAs), rollovers, and driver injuries. Additionally, we strengthened our focus on process safety incidents, particularly in critical areas such as ASU Cold Box Operations. These accomplishments reflect the dedication and commitment of all AIGA member companies and National Associations.

I also want to recognize the outstanding efforts of the AIGA Technical Committee and Work Groups. In 2025, they hosted six webinars on key safety topics and published 30 safety technical documents that included multiple documents harmonized with other major regional associations, viz CGA, EIGA and JIMGA. Furthermore, AIGA has advanced safety awareness in emerging areas, including the safe handling of hydrogen for mobility and Electronic & Specialty Gases. Thank you to every member for your voluntary contributions and active engagement. Your support keeps our association vibrant and forward-looking. As we move into 2026, I am confident that Asia's gas industry is well-positioned for sustained growth. Together, we will continue to enhance safety performance and leverage digital and AI technologies to accelerate our journey toward Zero Incidents and Accidents.

Wishing you all a healthy, safe, and prosperous new year ahead.
